ROSEBEN SIMPLY CANTERS.

DAVY JOHNSON'S CHAMPION SPRINTER WINS THE MANHATTAN AND A BIG BET.

Hot Toddy Scores An Easy Victory in the Dixiana Stakes-George S. Davis Upsets the Talent -Coup with Optician.

New York, October 12 .- Indian summer resumed its sway at Belmont Park today and, with the splendid card, materially contributed to the big crowd that journeyed to the magnificent racecourse Two interesting stake features were down for de cision, the Dixiana Stakes, at a mile, and the great sprinting fixture, the Manhattan Handicap, in which the champion Roseben was engaged. Davy Johnson's fortunes are so much improved that he was able to buy back his favorite and the others of his stable from L. O. Appleby and Roseben, running in his colors today, brought home a big stake in winning wagers. The market was skillfully manipulated and wonderfully lucrative odds obtained for the owner's $25,000 commission. At the beginning of betting on the race several thousand dollars were thrown away in bets on Suffrage. The layers took afright thereat and laid an abnormally high price against Roseben, with the result that Johnson obtained an average of 13 to 10 against a 1 to

Dr. Gardner was a conspicuous absentee from the Dixiana Stakes. Hot Toddy, however, maintained the western prestige in grand style by defeating his opposition with great ease. These were the only two public choices that were successful during the afternoon. The notorious in-and-outer, George S. Davis, furnished a big upset in the second in which Toddles, the prohibitive favorite, met unexpected defeat. Harry K. Knapp's Optician, backed down from 20 to 6 to 1, won the last in a canter. A lot of money was taken out of the ring over his victory.

Mose Goldblatt bought two racehorses today at private sale. The western horsemen paid Jack Baker $1,000 for Adbell and $2,500 to F. E. Gardner for the two-year-old Gargantua. Both are intended for winter campaigning at New Orleans.

Burns, the midget apprentice rider, brother to Tommy Burns, will ride at Oakland the coming winter in the employ of W. B. Jennings. Alex Shields will spend the winter in California.

MANUFACTURERS OPPOSE POOLROOMS

Covington, Ky., October 12 .- The Manufacturers' Association has taken a stand against poolrooms and yesterday passed the following resolution:

'A poolroom has recently been started on Second street, in violation of the law, and as this room, if tolerated, is likely to be followed by others, we, the Manufacturers' Association, demand that it be suppressed, and that in the future these rooms be strictly prohibited from running in the city of Cov ington and county of Kenton.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE NURSERY STAKES.

The Nursery Stakes was established shortly after the close of the Civil War and, after being one of the most important features of the Jerome Park fall meetings, was transferred to Morris Park and from thence to Belmont Park. In the course of its running it has fallen to many of the most brilliant stars of the American turf and its honors are always ardently desired by owners of good two-year-olds. Its

The Municipal Handicap has always furnished an interesting contest and, besides holding the record for the fastest mile and three-quarters ever run in this country, presents a unique feature in having been won for three years in succession by that superb stayer. MERRY THOUGHT FILLY LOOKS LIKE A PRIZE DAVIS CASE WILL BE TRIED NOVEMBER 5. Lexington Trainers Regard Her as a Splendid Racing Prospect for the Coming Year.

Lexington, Ky., October 12.-William Steele has the eight yearlings bought by Paul J. Rainey at the eastern sales about ready for their first trials. They will be asked to show what they can do over the homestretch quarter at the Kentucky Association course as soon as the rainy season ends. The track has not been in shape for fast work hardly a day in the last two weeks. It is likely that October will be well over before any yearlings have shown a quarter under 24 seconds, let alone anything like a three-eighths which will be much talked about. The colts and fillies bought by turfmen in the easthave as yet not been far away from home. In several instances among the former the youngsters plainly show the effects of the trip east and back. As a rule, the stables are unusually free from sickness this year, an air of good health prevailing at the gounds,

The Rainey yearlings will be shipped to Memphis during the winter and will be in the care of trainer May. The list, together with the prices paid for each, is as follows:

C., October 12.-United States Attorney Baker, prosecutor of the case of William Davis, bookmaker, who was indicted for laying odds on the races at the Bennings track last spring. protesting against a further continuance of the case said: "Unless this case is set for trial before the fall meeting of the Washington Jockey Club next month, I shall feel compelled to direct a ger raid on all the bookmakers at the opening of the meeting."

SHARPSHOOTERS GET BUSY.

LIGHTNING CONDUCTOR, HECTOR, LADY JOCE-LYN AND WHIPPOORWILL SCORE.

Not a Favorite Wins at Louisville-Five of the Ten Starters in the Steeplechase Fail to Finish-Gossip.

Louisville, Ky., October 12.—Favorites were downed in all the races at Churchill Downs today, but the bookmakers did not lay up anything. The sharpshooters were much in evidence. They hit the books heavily over the victories of Lightning Conductor, Hector, Lady Jocelyn and Whippoorwill. The sport was interesting. The finishes were of the close order and even losers at times felt a thrill of excitement. The steeplechase was replete with mishaps. At the fist jump St. Volma went down. Of the ten starting only five covered the course fely. Lady Jocelyn, the winner, ran a race son thing near to the form that had ben expected of her -probably through the superior judgment of Archibald, who piloted her. When Gus Lanka went down at the third jump he rolled over Yourell. The boy bowever, got up, shook himself and walked to the paddock. Pierce, who rode St. Volma, was pretty badly shaken up. He was bruised about the face and chest but was not seriously hurt.

There was much jamming in the Hector race hortly after the start. C. Morris, on Retropaw, vas held most to blame and was suspended for the emainder of the meeting.

The surprise of the afternoon was in the opening ace when Lady Ethel, neglected in the betting, won Jockey O. Rice, the rider of Rejectable, after declaring two and a half pounds overweight, came back to the scales six and a half pounds over. Judge Price fined him $25.

Starter Dwyer fined Nicol, Koerner, Schade and W. McIntyre $25 each and gave T. Taylor six days

It is alleged that the boys here have formed a conspiracy to defeat C. Koerner in races in which he has mounts and the interference that he suffered from with Miss Rillie yesterday is cited as an example.

FAR WEST, KING OF THE MUDLARKS.

Commenting upon the performance of Far West at Belmont Park Wednesday the New York World "Far West clinched his claim to King of the Mudlarks. Over the heavy track at Belmont Park he ran the mile course, around two turns, in 1:38%. This was a marvellous performance, as the trackrecord made by Kiamesha when the course was dry, is 1:37%. When the time of the fourth race was hung out racegoers were astounded and turning to one another said: 'There must be some mistake. Surely Far West never ran that fast over such a heavy track.' A canvass of the trainers who tin the race independently of W. H. Barretto, the official timer, fixed the time hung out as One or two horsemen said that they timed the race a fraction of a second better. The track was so deep in mud that eight out of the original twelve entries were withdrawn early in the day."

PIMLICO'S FALL STAKES FILL SPLENDIDLY.

Maryland Jockey Club to Have Good Meeting in November-Stake Named for Late Mr. Walden.

Baltimore, Md., October 12 .- The stakes of the Maryland Jockey Club, which closed October 1, to be run at the fall meeting at Pimlico, beginning November 1, show an increase in number over former stakes and a decided improvement in the class of the entries, conditions for which the management has been striving for. The Clabaugh Memorial for foals of 1905 was closed this fall, to be run at the spring meeting of 1907, as it was thought the closng of the stake in the fall would lend an additional interest to the owners and breeders of yearlings in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia and District of Columbia, to which locality the stake was limited.

It would seem the change was a wise one, since fifty-four colts have been entered for the stake, wenty-three being Maryland-bred, twenty-five from Virginia and six from Pennsylvania. The interest of the breeder is further kept up by the addition of $200 in plate to the breeder of the winner. The was won in the spring of 1905 by the late Wyndham Walden with a Maryland-bred colt. J.

Lane won in 1906 with a colt from Virginia.

The two-year-old stake to be run at the fall meeting is called the Walden. It is at six furlongs, and is named for the late Wyndham Walden, who probably did more for racing in Maryland than any one man. There are thirty-three entries to the stake, and among the number are the colts of many old friends of the man from whom it took its name. It includes among its number many winners at Buffalo and on the Canadian Circuit, as well as some which have won on the metropolitan tracks, such as Gold Lady, Susannah, The Wrestler, Landsman, Laura A., Josie S., Umbrella, Orphan Lad, Mary Curtis, Lady Vera, Allegra, Cave Adsum, Lord Boanerges, Kil-

Jochan, Lucy Marie, Town Topics and Percentage.

The Country Club of Pimlico Selling Stakes has proved the popularity of such stakes with the owners and trainers of today by receiving thirty-nine entries. The distance is at one mile and a sixteenth, and among the likely contenders might be mentioned Pleasant Days, Nonsense, Bryan, Cadichon, The Clown, Simple Honours, Donna, Spring, Wizard Cary, Jake, Racine II. Duke of Kendal, Proposer, Royal Window, Sonoma Belle, Grevilla, Scarfell, Belle of Jessamine, Lady, Hyperion, Samuel H.

Harris and Monacodor. The Pimlico Autumn Steeplechase, at two and a quarter miles should prove a good contest, for the chances of falls in a steeplechase always keep a Baltimore audience on the alert with excitement be-sides, a number of the horses entered are considered to have a good chance of winning.' It will bring together the winners of the Canadian Circuit, ju closed at the Hamilton meeting, with a number good jumpers from Virginia, Pennsylvania and Mar land. The following from among the twenty-tentries should make a good race: Waterford, M Woodhouse, Bilberry, Northville, Woolgatherer, Pe Dalley, Harry Baylor, Follow On, Gold Run, Pt Pepper, Gaterknot, Knobhampton, The Miner, Bou Brook and Bery Waddell.

There will be three races on the flat exclusive for gentlemen riders during the meeting—one six furlongs, one at seven furlongs and one the last Saturday of the meeting, the Hereford Coat a mile. These races are always a feature the Pimlico meetings, and bring out good conte between the best gentlemen riders from Penns vania, Virginia and Maryland.

BIG WAGERS MADE BY HAGGIN AND DALY.

During a recent visit to Lexington, Ky., John Mackey was one of a party of turfmen who gathered in the lobby of the Phoenix Hotel to "talk hoss." The conversation finally turned to betting and then to plunging—stories of the heavy betting of "Pittsburg Phil," Mike Dwyer, John A. Drake, John W. Gates, Riley Grannan, Davy Johnson and others here and gone. Mackey then told of two incidents in the lives of J. B. Haggin and the late Marcus Daly, neither of which was ever known as a "plunger," which probably excel any huge winnings on a single race ever made by the big operators noted above. When Ben Ali won the Kentucky Derby, Mr. Haggin authorized Lucien Appleby to buy every pool sold on the son of Virgil, and the California Croesus won the entire pool box on the race. The amount wagered must have been over $100,000, as Blue Wing, Free Knight and other starters in that race had hundreds of warm supporters. That was the spring Colonel M. Lewis Clark, president of the Louisville Jockey Club, had his famous quarrel with the Western Bookmakers' Association, and none of the bookies went on. It was the luckiest play they ever made, as had they done business that day and taken the money they would have lost their bankrolls to Haggin on the race. Ben Ali was trained for the race by Jim Murphy and ridden by Patsy Duffy. Haggin never knew it, but both his trainer and jockey were drunk the night before the race. Had he been aware of the condition of his stable it is likely he would not have wagered a dollar on his great horse. The other race Mackey noted was the Futurity won by the late Marcus Daly's Ogden. The books took the money, laying long odds against Ogden, owing to Tuberville having the mount on the colt. Mackey says Daly won every dollar of $250,000 on that race as his agents were even betting and the books taking the money when the field was running the last quarter. Ogden is now a star in the stud of J. E. Madden at Hamburg Place, and be is making a good as a sire.

W. J. YOUNG'S SEVEN YEARLINGS.

Lexington, Ky., October 12 .- W. J. Young has purchased seven yearlings and is now breaking them at the Kentucky Association track. One he bought at the Sheepshead Bay sales; the Fon Mate colt he got from Gus Eastin; the Eliza Belle colt from R. C. Estill, and the other four from Milton Young. Here is the list:

BERGEN'S FINES WERE HEAVY.

"It is understood that the Jockey Club stewards will pay all expenses of Marty Bergen's funeral," says the New York World, "This action will amend in small part for the many fines that Bergen had paid into 'the fund for disabled jockeys,' During the many years he rode, Marty was at war with James F. Caldwell, who years ago, was the starter at all the local race tracks. During this period he paid to the various racing associations the aggregate sum of $15,000. A fifteenth part of that amount would more than pay the expenses of his funeral and keep his widow for a few months until she has time to make arrangements for permanent support."

WOULD HAVE THE AMBULANCE READY.

In getting to W. C. Hayes after Grandpa fell with him at Belimont Park Tuesday, the ambulance broke all records for speed. The matter was made the subject of general comment by the New York papers. The Morning Telegraph concludes its comments with this: "There doesn't seem to be any good reason the ambulance should not be taken into the field before the start of a steeplechase. This has been frowned upon as being too suggestive of accidents, but there is no good ground for the maintenance of such a position."

CASSIDY & CO, TURF EXPERTS,

Suite 608... 171 Washington St. ...Chicago, III. INFORMATION: Heretofore we confined ourselves to selling information on horses that were privately prepared for a killing and charged $10 each and furnished $5 per cent. winners. We will continue getting that same information, but will give all subscribers prior to October 15 the benefit thereof, without additional charges. Those who subscribe after October 15 must pay $10 each.

OUR PROPOSITION: Commencing October 15, for $5 weekly, we will send out direct track information on one or two horses daily—never more than two—and if on a flat bet of $5 on each horse you cannot show good winnings, you receive the following week's information free of charge.

IN OTHER WORDS, if we cannot make you a winner, our correspondents and ourselves work for nothing. We do not advertise long shot winners, nor do we try to pick or dope them out. The name of every horse is filed with the Daily Racing Form every noon. SEND IN YOUR $5.00 SUBSCRIPTION AND CASSIDY & CO.
